THEOLOGY OF THE ARTS

Art and artists have a place in the life and worship of the Christian community. Our God is a creative God who made physical matter with substance, function and beauty. He gave man the ability to be creative and honor Him with his objects of beauty.

Art that reflects truths about our Lord and our faith in physical form, gives us tangible encouragement, helps us focus on and trust in what we cannot see, and allows us to expand on our understanding of Biblical truth.

PURPOSES OF THE GALLERY

- Present art that glorifies the Lord;
- Stimulate and enable church members to interact more with the Lord;
- Expand understanding of Biblical truth;
- Invite the Body to experience the joy, wonder and mystery of our Creator;
- Provide an opportunity for PBCC artists and craftspeople to share their work;
- Involve PBCC artists and craftspeople in the teaching, encouraging and worship ministries;
- Encourage and challenge PBCC artists and craftspeople to produce art which overtly responds to God and our faith.

Throughout the Bible, in both the Old and New Testaments, God Himself and the authors of the books of the Bible use many names to refer to Him. God's names reveal to us who He is—His nature, His attributes and His actions. They also reveal to us how God views and relates to His creation, especially mankind—and specifically, each one of us. Each name of God that we encounter adds to the picture we have of the Being we are worshipping, and enlarges the relationship we can have with Him. The more we know of Him, the deeper we will bow before His Majesty and Holiness, the more gratefully we will receive His love and care, and the closer we will draw in love to Him.
